ABSTRACT

This annotated list of periodicals is intended for both public libraries and school libraries in Canada. While focusing on Canadian magazines, this publication also cites some non-Canadian material suitable for Canadian school and public library collections. Most of the material is suitable for the average child or youngster, although there are some adult titles which enrich and augment the collection. An English annotation is given for all periodicals, even when French material is cited. Periodicals are arranged alphabetically by title and each listing includes publishers' address, telephone and fax number, subscription cost, audience level, a list of sources where the periodical is indexed, evaluative/informative annotation, ISSN/ISBN code, and month and year when the information was verified. An index groups periodicals by subject. (Author/SWC)

PREFACE

This annotated list for school and public libraries was conceived when the editor was teaching a course in school librarianship at Concordia University in the Fall of 1993. The only available Canadian publication at the time was the 1981, 2nd edition of the Periodicals for British Columbia's School Libraries. The British Columbia Library Association, who published this list, has no intention to update their publication.

This list was first published in electronic format in 1994. Thanks to the encouragement and help from the Association des Bibliothècaires du Québec/ Québec Library Association this current edition was prepared and published.

While focusing mainly on Canadian magazines, this publication also cites some non-Canadian material suitable for Canadian school and public library collections.

Where French material is cited, an English annotation is given, along with quotations in French. However, an English annotation is always included. If foreign publishers have a representative in Canada, the Canadian address is given. In the case where an international publication offers issues that are oriented to Canada, eg. Time and Elle Québec, the Canadian publication is given precedence. Periodical vendors are suggested where the price is advantageous or the material is difficult to obtain through the publisher.

The list is intended for public libraries as well as school libraries. While most of the material is suitable for the average child/youngster, some titles are adult titles, to enrich and augment the collection.

Thanks to a small grant from Concordia University, it was possible to complete this list.

Thanks are also due to the Department of Library Studies, Concordia University for its support. Two graduates of the Programme, Susan Lord and Susan Tee, made a substantial contribution as Research Assistants to this project. The helpful recommendations of the following members of the Québec Library Association are much appreciated: Anne Howard, Karla Kuklas, Mary McGee and Susan Perles.

Special thanks to Susan Tee for verifying the subscription costs and addresses for this edition and for adding e-mail where applicable.

We thank the following libraries where the magazines were viewed:
